

Junior Management Consultants to KPMG Stockholm and Gothenburg

Are you striving to work with highly strategic transformation projects that truly make a difference at top clients? Join us, KPMG Management Consulting! We are growing rapidly and can offer great career opportunities.

Working at KPMG Management Consulting is an excellent way to begin and advance your career. Right from the start you will get the opportunity to advise our clients in their transformation journeys from strategy and design to value realization in our core areas Finance and Operations. As a Management Consultant you will develop long term business relationships with market leading entities within Public Sector, Corporate Clients and Financial Services.

KPMG is a leading knowledge firm. Our global network supports us in guiding clients in the increasingly complex business environment. Our vision is to become the leading transformation partner within our core disciplines. We address critical challenges, shoulder-to-shoulder with top executives, when implementing sustainable and measurable long-term improvements and value.

We are looking for high performing and talented individuals who are recent graduates with a Master degree, preferably within Business and/or Engineering. Personal acumen includes a business mindset, excellent communication skills, multilingual proficiency, an analytical way of solving problems and a team oriented way of working. In addition to excellent grades we value international experience, previous work experience and other engagements and achievements showing a strong drive, high ambition and passion.

As a consultant you will join our project teams and work with large transformations within various sectors. During the first years you will be a part of our learning and developing program Talent Growth where you will acquire knowledge about KPMG:s customers, sectors and industry trends, learn our tools and methods, gain deep knowledge about MC Service Lines and Delivery Models and also improve your leadership and sales skills. Furthermore, you will get a mentor and a dedicated performance manager supporting you in your career.

We are very much looking forward to welcome our new recruits. We enjoy, and offer a steep learning curve, great fun, and work alongside our clients targeting their critical challenges.

Apply online at www.kpmg.se/ledigatjanster as soon as possible, but no later than September 24th 2017. Please attach CV, cover letter and university grade transcript. Please note that fluency in English and Swedish is required. Selected applicants will be invited to our Assessment Day. Based on mutual agreement successful candidates will be based in either Stockholm or Gothenburg and start in January 2018 or August 2018.

If you have any questions, please contact HR Coordinator Katarina Tisner, 0709 52 86 48 or katarina.tisner@kpmg.se.

We look forward to your application!
