

Management Consulting Summer Internship 2019

Are you striving to work with highly strategic transformation projects that truly make a difference for top clients? Join us at KPMG Management Consulting! We are offering a position as a Summer Intern at the Stockholm office.

An internship at KPMG Management Consulting is an excellent way to begin your career and learn more about the consulting profession as you get to work with top private and public entities and leaders. On a daily basis we are helping our clients to uncover opportunities and create greater value. As an intern you will be a part of our consulting team and work with transformation projects for leading organizations. As part of a team, you will be providing financial, strategic and operational advice.

What do we offer?

Our internship includes eight weeks of full-time employment, starting in June, followed by a break and time for reflection in July before continuing the program in August. This Internship is an excellent opportunity for you to get hands on experience in the role as a Management Consultant, whilst still being a student. You will be part of a high performing project team and advise our clients in their transformation journeys. At KPMG Management Consulting we take great pride in developing not only the client's business but also our own firm. In addition to the client related tasks, you will therefore also get the opportunity to contribute in developing our firm, which will give you valuable insight in the internal processes and the organization.

Who are we looking for?

You are pursuing studies at Master level and to become successful in this role we expect you to have a business mindset, exceptional analytical skills, a strong team spirit and great interpersonal skills. Excellent communication skills and fluency in English and Swedish are also requirements.
