

AniCura M&A Internship with start in August 2019

Internship description

AniCura is growing rapidly and as part of AniCura's international M&A team, you will work in a fast-paced, dynamic and team-oriented work environment close to the company's management team. Your day to day responsibilities are varied and will among other things include company analysis, financial modelling and providing support for your team in live transactions, processes and pitches. Since AniCura is a very transaction intensive company, we can offer you a steep learning curve and unparalleled insight into various M&A processes. During the internship, and under your own responsibility, you will get the chance to apply your knowledge from banking and consulting in practice. We are looking to fill the position as soon as possible with start in August 2019. After a successfully completed internship, there are high chances to receive a full-time offer.

About AniCura (www.anicuragroup.com)

AniCura is one of Europe's leading providers of high-quality veterinary care for companion animals. The company was born out of the idea that sharing resources creates opportunities for better veterinary care and was established in 2011 as the first merger of companion animal hospitals in the Nordic region. Today, AniCura is a role model and leading provider of advanced veterinary care, well-known for its investments in quality and people.

Over the past seven years, AniCura has conducted more than 230 transactions and grown to employ more than 5 000 veterinary professionals at 250 animal hospitals and clinics across ten European countries. Previously owned by Nordic Capital and Fidelio Capital, AniCura is since 2018 part of Mars Petcare.

Qualifications

- Completed a minimum of two years of relevant university studies (business, engineering or similar)
- Fluency in English and Swedish. Further language skills are highly advantageous
- High proficiency in Microsoft Office, in particular Excel and PowerPoint
- Previous internship experience or part-time work besides studies is meritorious

Ideal candidates have a genuine interest in business and investments, are motivated, analytical and pay attention to detail. As you will be trusted with a lot of responsibility, you will be expected to take initiatives and work independently.

Application

We are assessing candidates on an ongoing basis; hence we encourage early applications. Please apply by sending your CV, grade transcript and cover letter to Johan Collin, AniCura:
