

Associates to KPMG Deal Advisory, Transaction Services starting January or August 2019

Application Deadline: Oct. 6, 2019

Location: Stockholm

Are you looking for a career within M&A working with prominent private equity and corporate clients in a collaborative and high-performing international company? The Transaction Services team at KPMG is looking to recruit Associates to the Stockholm office.

KPMG Deal Advisory

KPMG Deal Advisory is a leading provider of M&A services in Sweden and globally. Globally, KPMG Deal Advisory employs over 7,400 transactions specialists in more than 160 offices in 82 countries around the world. Our services cover mergers and acquisitions, strategic advice and due diligence, valuation services, capital markets advice and restructuring. As the leading Deal Advisory business in Sweden we have advised on a number of the largest transactions within the Swedish and Nordic market place with large corporates, private equity and government clients.

The role

You will, together with your team, participate in buy- and sell-side transactions, providing financial due diligence (“DD”). As an Associate with KPMG Deal Advisory you will work with analysis of target company data to find key drivers behind the historical financial performance, challenging assumptions about future performance, understanding the cash flow cycle and finding potential liabilities and risks which could impact valuation and negotiation of the target company

Skills & Requirements

You are a driven individual longing to work in an inclusive and professional environment that offers a steep learning curve. You are interested in learning more about financial analysis, project management and the transaction market. You like to take on responsibility and be a key player in our team.

Beside your degree and academic record, you have probably demonstrated your drive through extra extracurricular activities such as previous work experience or engagements in student organizations. As the work includes both analysis and contact with clients and other advisors, you have a business mindset, an analytical way of thinking and the ability to build good relationships. Fluency in English and Swedish is a requirement, additional languages are an advantage.

What do we offer?

- Support and training to grow quickly in a professional and forward leaning environment
- A client-oriented role on a team serving the largest Private Equity and Corporate clients across Sweden
- Mentorship under senior transaction specialists supporting your career and personal development
- A local workplace with global opportunities! (we have offices in 155 countries)
- A friendly and inclusive environment where diversity is one of our core values
