Alantra - Full-time Analyst Position

Nordic Investment Banking Team – Summer/Fall 2020

Alantra is a listed Global Investment Banking, Asset Management and Wealth Management firm. The firm has 35 offices in 24 countries and advised on over 200 M&A, Debt Advisory, Financial Restructuring, Credit Portfolio and Capital Markets transactions in 2019.

Established in late 2016, Alantra opened up the Stockholm office covering the Nordic M&A market. In the fall of 2019, Alantra's second Nordic office opened in Copenhagen. To further enable the rapid growth, we are now looking for talent to join the team in Stockholm starting in the Summer/Fall of 2020. As an addition to the Nordic Investment Banking team, you will work in a highly entrepreneurial environment with deal exposure from cross-border projects from day one.

Role and Qualifications

The primary role of the full-time analyst is to provide analytical and research support services during specific transactions and marketing projects. Day-to-day responsibilities include development of marketing materials, industry research, prospect identification, financial modelling, valuations, pitch work, and transaction execution assistance. Analysts receive great deal of responsibility and have direct client exposure from day one. Alantra gives its analysts significant execution responsibilities and is committed to their long-term professional development.

Qualifications

- Relevant work experience at a leading investment bank or M&A boutique
- Strong academic background with demonstrated quantitative skills and well-developed knowledge of financial terms and concepts
- Skills in a Nordic language (native level), English (excellent writing and speaking skills) and a third European language is a plus
- Proficiency in using Microsoft Office and standard business/financial databases

We are looking for a self-motivated team player who enjoys the opportunities a small, but growing team can provide
