

CFO Office Intern – Autumn 2021

Stockholm, Sweden

- EQT is looking to recruit a full-time Intern to the central management team focused on the CFO Office for the autumn 2021 (July-December, exact timing can be discussed)

Description

As a CFO office intern you will support the CFO office and the broader Central Management team with analysis and presentations for the executive management team, the Board of EQT and other stakeholders. You will work closely with the CFO Office Associates and be a core member of the CFO/COO functions where you will work on financial planning and analysis, external publications, strategic, operational and development projects preparing EQT for further growth over the coming years. This part of the role will give you a broad exposure across EQT and includes working closely with our CFO, Kim Henriksson and other executive functions including close collaboration with Shareholder Relations. Examples of recent projects include the issuance of a EUR 500m bond, signing a EUR 1,000m RCF and owning the financial aspects of the long term strategy plan for EQT

Requirements

The successful candidate will have a strong interest in finance and private equity and preferably have done previous internships within investment banking, consulting, private equity or similar. As the role will entail financial analysis and preparing board material etc. the candidate is required to have strong skills in Microsoft Excel and PowerPoint. The ideal candidate is independent and thrives under a fast pace

Application process

Submit your CV and Cover Letter to Joakim.Ytterberg@eqtpartners.com. Candidates will be reviewed on an ongoing basis
